

Behind Barbed Wire:

Midwest POWs in Nazi Germany

The American Heartland has unique connections to the WWII prisoner of war (POW) experience. Despite this legacy, virtually no one is aware of it. Housed in a converted school bus, the mobile exhibit Behind Barbed Wire illustrates this history through narrative texts, multi-media and artifacts. This exhibit will be in _____ from _____ to _____ on _____ the _____ of _____ 200__.

The BUS-eum will be parked at the _____ at _____

For more information contact _____ at _____ (____) _____ - _____ or per email at _____ . Also see _____ .

www.TRACES.org.

